Profile of Mr. Pratik Khandwala

Mr. Pratik Khandwala has done his double masters in U.K. (MBA, Finance and MSC in Investment Management). He has returned to KSL to lead the investment banking and advisory services here. Apart from advising HNIs, his passion for optimising operations breathed new life into the system.

Mr. Pratik Khandwala went on to pursue his career in management consultancy with Ernst & Young (EY, India). He has led large projects within the financial services segment which include business transformation, operational excellence, business process re-engineering, project and change management, business strategy, market assessment and business plans and feasibility assessment. One of his marquee experiences include setting up of a full-serviced bank where he coined new products offerings and deployed innovative digital solutions to cater a large customer base.

Today, as an Associate Director at EY Hong Kong, he has acquired over a decade of consulting experience in global organizations, collaborating with cross-functional, multi-cultural teams and advising clients across various countries including India, US, UK, Singapore, Europe and Hong Kong. His work has helped him build strong credentials within the financial services segment.
