

For the day, all eyes will be on Reliance Industries Q4.

...RIL Q4 is expected to be robust, driven by an improvement in refining margins and a rebound in the petrochemicals cycle. Consolidated revenue is expected to increase 11.4% from a year earlier to Rs 2.12 lakh crore.

Nifty's Technical landscape is suggesting positive bias as long as 21710 support is held.

Daily Research Reports

Good Morning & Welcome to Monday's trading session at Dalal Street, dated April 22nd 2024.

The Good News: WTI Oil prices have declined to $83 a barrel, down around 3% in the week gone by.

Well, declining oil prices clearly suggests that there may be limited prospects of escalation in Iran-Israel tensions.

Meanwhile, HDFC Bank Q4 profit grew 37% but fell short of market estimate.

HDFC Bank posted Rs 17,257 crore profit for Q4; sets aside Rs 10,900 crore floating provisions. HDFC Bank reported a 0.04% improvement in net interest margin (NIM) to 3.44% in the said quarter.

Please note, in July 2023, the bank merged its home loan-focused parent HDFC into itself.

All eyes will now be on fresh batch of Corporate India's Q4 results to trickle in from here on:

Today, all bullish eyes will be on Reliance Industries Q4 and it's expected to be robust driven by an improvement in refining margins and a rebound in the petrochemicals cycle. Consolidated revenue is expected to increase 11.4% from a year earlier to Rs 2.12 lakh crore.

BIRLA MONEY, INDIAN BANK, RALLIS India are other key stocks to post Q4 today.

Outlook on Monday: A volatile session on cards.

In the United States, this week, investors are gearing up for one of the busiest weeks on the earnings calendar, with anticipation building around Q1 of major tech titans like Alphabet, Microsoft, and Meta.

Eyes will also be on Verizon, Tesla, Pepsico, Texas Instruments, Philip Morris, Qualcomm, IBM, AT&T, Boeing, Amazon, Honeywell, Exxon Mobil, Chevron, CME Group, Ford, and Spotify.

This week on April 25th, Focus will also be on the US economy which is expected to grow 2.1% in Q1, a slowdown from 3.4% rate in Q4.

This Friday, April 26th, commanding attention will be the core and headline March US PCE inflation.

Strictly speaking, tumbling Wall Street is a concern for our stock markets too.

The S&P 500 is trading firmly below the 5,000-point mark for the first time since February, and digging deeper, the Dow Jones index this April month has dropped 4.75% while Nasdaq this month is already down 6.75%.

We will spy with one big eye if Nifty bulls can salvage a rough April.

Honestly speaking, the stock market is stuck between jokers and clowns: Sticky inflation and Rising geopolitical tensions.

Long story short: For a bounce to last, we need some real positive surprise on inflation, geo-politics or earnings.

Until then, caution should be the buzzword.

Copper futures have surged above $4.4 per pound, the highest in nearly two years as concerns of low supply were met with signs of traction in demand.

Nickel futures have soared above $19,000 to their highest since September 2023, lifted by talks of Chinese government buying and fears of lower supplies.

Oil Prices continue to trade sluggish at $83 a barrel.

ECONOMIC CUES:

US Retail sales for March rose more than anticipated sending Treasury yields higher. The data suggest interest rates may stay steady for longer than some traders had hoped.

The U.S. Census Bureau said retail sales rose 0.7% on a monthly basis in March. February's figures were also revised higher. The report was the latest economic data that could push back potential interest rate cuts from the Federal Reserve.

GLOBAL STOCK MARKETS:

In Friday's trade at Wall Street, U.S. stocks were seen trading mixed as sharp selloff in tech and communications services stocks weighed on Nasdaq, though solid earnings results for a blue chip credit card company kept the Dow Jones Industrial Average above water.

At the close, the Dow was up 0.6% at 37,986 thanks to a post-earnings pop for American Express.

In the United States, this week, investors are gearing up for one of the busiest weeks on the earnings calendar, with anticipation building around Q1 of major tech titans like Alphabet, Microsoft, and Meta.

Bank Nifty (+505, 47574)

The positivity can be attributed to overnight modest positive close seen for Dow Jones and also to short covering and bargain hunting.

Banking & Financial Services stocks took the lead to lift the benchmarks where Bank Nifty was up 1.07% while Nifty Financial Services was up 1.31%.

All level indicated above are based on cash market prices.

Pivot Point

PP : Pivot Point : This is trigger point for weekly buy/sell based on the price range of the previous week.
R1 : Resistance one : 1st Resistance over PP. R2 : Resistance two : 2nd Resistance over R1.
S1 : Support one : 1st support after PP. S2 : Support Two : 2nd support after S1.

As per the tool, the trader should take BUY position just above PP and keep the stop loss of PP and the first target would be R1. If R1 is crossed then R2 becomes the next target with the stop loss at R1.

Similarly if price goes below PP the trader should SELL and keep the PP as Stop loss and the first target would be S1.

If S1 is crossed then S2 becomes the next target with the stop loss at S1. This is a trading tool. The key to use of this tool is the use of STOP LOSS.
