*The Week That Was *

July 7th to July 11th 2025.

It was another tumultuous week at Dalal Street as the benchmark Nifty was still stuck in the mud.

Pessimism was all across and the negative takeaway was that Nifty's future outlook was as clear as mud and also considered murky.

The gyan mantra: Initiating aggressive long positions at Dalal Street is like building a skyscraper on top of quicksand.

The expected panic is quite predictable. Caution continues to be the buzzword for perma-bulls.

Nifty (-1.22%, 25150) Sensex (-1.12%, 82500)

Well, the smile was clearly missing at the bulls' camp, even the vision was blurred indicating investors at Dalal Street lacked a sense of happiness, joy, or contentment.

Simply put, bright spots were hard to find in the week-long scrum as massive sell-off on Dalal Street was the preferred theme — as investors become increasingly alarmed about:

- 1) President Donald Trump's latest barrage of tariff threats
- 2) Concerns of a lacklustre earnings season, following IT giant Tata Consultancy Services' weak quarterly show and disappointing commentary.
- 3) Hawkish remarks from the Fed's Musalem.

Now, here are key themes in the week gone by:

- 1) At Wall Street, the S&P 500 and Nasdaq Composite roared to reach their fresh 52-week highs.
- 2) FII selling: In the week gone by, the FIIs were net sellers to the tune of Rs. 4511 crores.
- 3) Investors weighed renewed tariff threats from the Trump administration. The US President announced a 35% tariff on Canadian imports starting August 1st and signaled plans to impose broad-based tariffs of 15% to 20% on most other trading partners, up from the current 10% rate. The EU is expected to receive formal notice of the applicable tariff rates shortly.

Long Story Short: The possibility of melt-down is quite high as Trump administration brings more tariff uncertainty to an overbought, complacent market.

The Week Ahead: Trump's tariff threats are back on the front pages.

Donald Trump has been on a tariff letter sending spree this week. While the effective date for the reciprocal tariffs has been revised to August 1 from July 9, Trump has intimated over 20 countries of the tariff rates that will be applicable on their exports to the US. Luckily, India hasn't received such letter till now.

Hence, our call of the week suggests to keep a close eye on the upcoming 4-biggest catalysts:

1) India and the US bilateral trade pact ahead of the August 1st deadline.

- 2) US President Trump is expected to continue delivering letters to notify countries of new tariff rates, including the EU.
- 3) On Tuesday, July 15th, major releases will be headlined by the US CPI, which is expected to accelerate.
- 4) Q1 Corporate India's earnings season.

Also, commanding attention outside of the equities market is the speculation that President Donald Trump could name a replacement for Federal Reserve Chair Jerome Powell sooner rather than later.

Long Story Short: Nifty's bullish constructive stance only above 25670 mark. Until then caution should be the buzzword.

PP: Pivot Point : This is trigger point for weekly buy/sell based on the price range of the previous week.
R1: Resistance one : 1st Resistance over PP. R2 : Resistance two : 2nd Resistance over R1.
S1: Support one : 1st support after PP. S2 : Support Two : 2nd support after S1.

As per the tool, the trader should take BUY position just above PP and keep the stop loss of PP and the first target would be R1. If R1 is crossed then R2 becomes the next target with the stop loss at R1.

Similarly if price goes below PP the trader should SELL and keep the PP as Stop loss and the first target would be S1.

If S1 is crossed then S2 becomes the next target with the stop loss at S1. This is a trading tool. The key to use of this tool is the use of STOP LOSS.
