Daily Research Reports

Good Morning & Welcome to Monday's trading session at Dalal Street, dated August 11th 2025.

The Good News: Gift Nifty is indicating a positive start for our stock markets.

Hopefully, Nifty joins the conga line of rising stock markets across the globe; especially picks up the bullish theme from Wall Street.

In Friday's trade;

- 1) Nasdaq ended with a new record high.
- 2) The S&P 500 came within a hair of a new high.
- 3) While the Dow Jones Industrial Average ended in comfortably in green and still has yet to hit a fresh peak in 2025.
- # Our call of the week suggests to keep a close eye on the Next 3-Big Catalysts from Wall Street:
- 1) The US CPI on Tuesday, August 12th. We will spy with one big eye if it can move the needle towards a 25 or 50bp rate cut for September.
- 2) All eyes will be on Fed Governor Christopher Waller who is a leading contender to head the US central bank, bolstering market bets on a September rate cut.

Please note, there are still 3-FOMC meetings to take place this year 2025: September, October and December.

3) U.S. retail sales for July 2025 will be announced on August 15.

Long Story Short: Nifty's recent selling could take a breather on backdrop improving leads from Wall Street.

Outlook for Monday: An up-and-down session is quite likely.

The 5-key big catalysts which will command investors' attention this week:

- 1) Investor attention will remain squarely focused on President Trump's trade war and closely monitor international trade developments after U.S. President Donald Trump announced a nearly 50% tariff on Indian imports.
- 2) Also, all eyes will be on corporate India's Q1 earnings season which enters its final leg as concerns rise about a lacklustre earnings season.
- 3) India's CPI rate for the month of July will be unveiled on August 12. (India's consumer price inflation eased for the eighth straight month, falling to 2.1% in June 2025—the lowest level since January 2019—down from 2.82% in May).
- 4) India's WPI inflation figure for July 2025 will be made public on August 14. (India's wholesale prices unexpectedly fell by 0.13% year-on-year in June 2025, reversing from 0.39% growth in May. This marked the first annual decline in wholesale prices since October 2023).
- 5) Passenger vehicle sales data for July 2025 will be released on August 15.

Investor optimism was further supported by expectations of Federal Reserve rate cuts after President Trump nominated Stephen Miran to the Fed Board, signaling potential shifts in monetary policy despite ongoing concerns over new tariffs imposed on imports from multiple countries.

RECAP OF PREVIOUS DAY'S TRADING SESSION:

NIFTY (-233, 24363)

Sensex (-765, 79858)

Bank Nifty (-516, 55005)

- # Nifty gets hammered, ends the week on a dismal note, and most importantly, the losing streak continues for 6th straight week.
- # Simply put Dalal Street had nothing to offer but blood, sweat and tears.

All About Trump Tariff:

Our call of the day suggests markets are likely remain choppy and volatile until 'the Trump tariff threats are off the front pages'

Strictly speaking, the relationship between India and the US which is facing one of its most significant challenges in decades, after the US President Donald Trump has doubled tariffs on India from 25% to 50% (Of this 50%, the additional 25% tariffs, however, will kick in from August 27).

The Trump administration is unhappy and has insisted India to stop buying Russian oil or face punitive tariffs.

Meanwhile, India has been really hit hard on the tariff front as the Trump administration is targeting New Delhi for purchasing Russian arms and energy.

India's Prime Minister Narendra Modi has told Indian farmers that he will 'never compromise' in face of 50% US tariffs.

Long Story short: Amidst this backdrop, hopes recede for any agreement on the tariff front ahead of sixth round of talks for tariff which starts on August 25 in New Delhi.

Meanwhile, the 3-key negative catalysts on the backburner:

- 1) FII selling: Last week, FIIs were net sellers to the tune of Rs. 20524.40 crores. In yesterday's positive session too, FIIs turned out to be net sellers to the tune of Rupees 2567 crores.
- 2) Uninspiring Q1FY26 by Indian corporates.
- 3) The Indian rupee stays depressed near the 87.77 levels amid sustained concerns over U.S. President Donald Trump's threaten to "substantially" raise tariffs on goods imported from India. As of writing, INR was hovering at 87.78.

Now, the 4-positive catalysts:

- 1) WTI oil prices plunging towards $66 a barrel.
- 2) A booming Wall Street and Global stock markets.
- 3) Most importantly, Fed's September rate cut is back on the table.
- 4) India VIX at 11.89 (+0.22%)
- $# \ Bottom-line: Sentiments \ are seen \ walking \ the \ tightrope \ between \ Trump's \ higher \ tariff \ and \ newly \ optimistic \ dovish \ Federal \ Reserve \ bets.$

Digging deeper, Nifty plunged at the open, and then moved down further to trade with negative bias before perking up slightly towards the close.

- 2) Bank Nifty (-0.93%) ends way below its dotted lines, aiming to join the conga-line of bearish sectoral indices. Bank Nifty's new all-time-high continues to be at 57628.40 mark
- 3) The market breadth (9:41) was in favor of bears.
- 4) The Nifty Mid-cap (-1.68%) and Nifty Small-cap (-1.72%) indices were too in panic mode, and ended on a jittery note.
