

The big question: Did the hype over big GST cuts fizzle out?

Honestly speaking, the adage "buy the rumour, sell the news" was into play in yesterday's trade.

Our call of the day which suggests the 'Next-Gen GST Reforms' should strengthen the case for a consumption-led recovery, with auto and consumption expected to benefit the most. But having said that, the broader and macro-outlook still is vulnerable to global macro uncertainties – especially on Trump's US tariff of 50% on India and most importantly, the persistent FII's outflows.

Daily Research Reports

# Good Morning & Welcome to Friday's trading session at Dalal Street, dated September 5th 2025.

Nifty Outlook: Bullish consolidation could be the preferred theme for the day. Nifty's biggest support still seen at 24336 mark (Low as on August 8th 2025).

Nifty's major bull case is likely to get louder ONLY above 25155 mark.

The Good News: Gift Nifty is seen consolidating with positive indicating Nifty may grind higher in today's trade.

Well, this morning's optimism is on backdrop of sold positive Wall Cues in overnight trade.

That said, all investors' eyes will be on Friday's August US jobs report

Meanwhile, the theme at our stock markets revolves around the GST Council which approved 5% and 18% for most items; along with a 40% special rate for sin goods.

That brings us to the big question of the day: Is the hype over big GST cuts have somehow fizzled out?

Honestly speaking, the adage "buy the rumor, sell the news" was into play in yesterday's trade.

Blame some part of the profit-booking to many a sectoral index which had flared up 5% since PM Modi's Independence Day announcement on the big bang GST reforms.

Some segment of the market was also cautious amidst questions of proper execution of the GST reforms.

Well, that bring us to our call of the day which suggests the 'Next-Gen GST Reforms' should strengthen the case for a consumption-led recovery, with auto and consumption expected to benefit the most. But having said that, the broader and macro-outlook still is vulnerable to global macro uncertainties – especially on the Trump's US tariff of 50% on India and most importantly, the persistent FII's outflows.

# Long Story Short: Confirmation of strength only if Nifty closes above its biggest hurdles at 25155 mark.

Until Nifty 25155 mark is a hurdle, expect volatility, volatility and volitly to the preferred theme at Dalal street.

Bottom-line: Nifty's bull case is likely to get louder ONLY above 25155 mark.

Outlook for Friday: Nifty may aim for solid gains.

Our call of the day suggests a quieter but powerful bullish consolidation could be the preferred theme.

We will spy with one big eye if Nifty can close above the psychological 25000 mark.

The good news is that the Federal Reserve's September 17th rate cut is still on the table despite sticky US PCE inflation data.

# STOCKS IN SPOTLIGHT:

2) The stock price of life insurance companies received drubbing even after Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman, slashed tax rates on individual health and life insurance premiums, cutting the tax from 18 percent to zero. HDFC Life (-2.86%), SBI Life (-1.08%), ICICI Prudential Life (-1.57%), Star Health (-1.81%)

The street suspects, the move will be a benefit for consumers, however, uncertainty remains around input tax credit relief for insurers. Also, the IRDAI is likely to have advised insurance companies to reduce their dependence on the bancassurance channel for business.

3) The Nifty Auto index was star outperformer of Thursday's trade, gaining 0.85% and flirting with its highest level seen in nearly 11 months. Auto stocks were in spotlight after the GST Council approved a slew of reforms to the tax regime.
